

Whiskey Glasses by Edward White

Vertical Grain 2.5 White Oak • 254075-004

Overview

Edward White was an American artist and designer active in the 1930s. He is known for his hyper-realistic paintings of glassware, ceramics, jewelry and textiles. Using graphite and gouache, he depicted everyday objects in exquisite detail and accuracy. A hand-selected piece from the exclusive partnership between Rosenstiels and Four Hands. Rosenstiels is a family-owned art publisher known for producing high-quality prints, limited editions and wall art, based in London since 1880. Handmade in Austin, Texas.
