FOUR HANDS

Abstracted Still Life by Roger De La Fresnaye

RoofTop 1.5 Rustic Walnut • 256444-003

Overview

Late French painter Roger de La Fresnaye is known for his unique contributions to Cubism. Influenced by Picasso and Braque, he incorporated abstract and playful shapes into his work. His sensitive use of color set him apart and his style eventually shifted to Orphism, an art movement focused on energetic and emotive colors. A hand-selected piece from the exclusive partnership between Rosenstiels and Four Hands. Rosenstiels is a family-owned art publisher known for producing high-quality prints, limited editions and wall art, based in London since 1880. Handmade in Austin, Texas.
