With its ethereal glow, the Bonaventure Bowl is crafted from pale gray mouthblown glass with swirling lines that create delicate textural striations across its surface. The effect is achieved when it is swirled while thin white glass rods are adhered to it as it is blown. The shape is realized when molten glass is allowed to drop from the blowing pipe into an orb and is carefully shaped by hand before being cut at the top with scissors to form its final silhouette. This makes each bowl one-of-a-kind.
