The Seascape Table Lamp has a terracotta body covered in an intricate swirl of seashells arranged tonally to create striated patterns that suggest movement. Four floral motifs, also fashioned from shells and applied in the center of each side, add dimension to the design. A matching finial completes the lamp. Each piece requires remarkable skill to affix the shells by hand, making it a true work of craftsmanship. Because it features a natural material, the surfaces of the stone may vary slightly from lamp to lamp.
