Proof that lighting is the jewelry in a room is the Mandeville Wall Sconce with its facet-like glass elements placed between ribbed sections of iron in an antique gold finish. The translucent shade is hammered for an uptick in texture, and the colors of the painted glass—Butter Rum Sandbar, Matte Ombre, and Deep Grey—call to mind a 60's vibe. The one-light sconce is dimmable, and there will be subtle variations in the hammered glass from fixture to fixture.
