The Zeta Blue Table Lamp is crafted from grayish-blue glass with a swirling pattern created using two molds, a technique that gives the surface the feeling of movement. Its shape is inspired by a 19th-century antique Zanfirico glass vase, reminiscent of the artistry of Murano glassmakers. The lamp rests on an optic crystal base with a coordinating crystal finial, while a softback shade trimmed in blue echoes the tones of the glass body. Because it is made of an artisanal material, its surface may vary slightly from lamp to lamp.
