675 Chair

Robin Day

675 Chair

Robin Day

A design that has truly stood the test of time, the 675 chair is one of the most recognised of the Twentieth Century.

Originally created in 1952, the chair's most prominent feature is its curved walnut-veneered plywood back. Pioneering at the time, Robin Day overcame the difficulty of forming a single moulded plywood chair with armrests, by creating a fluid shape using a singular curve.

In close collaboration with the Robin and Lucienne Day Foundation, Case revisited the original design and faithfully reinstated, in the 2014 chair, the element and detail of the 1952 original.

Suited to both dining and home office environments.

Rene Sofa

Rene Sofa

Matthew Hilton

The René Sofa was designed with simplicity in mind, a quiet piece of furniture that offers the user scope for their own self-expression.

Designed by Matthew Hilton who describes the shape as having a hint of Art Deco, with just the suggestion of the 1920s and 1930s, as well as a nod to early Roxy Music and Biba. The name René comes from René Lalique, the celebrated French jeweller and glass designer.

Narin Chair

David Irwin

Inspired by the constantly adapting nature of modern workshops, the Narin chair is both easy to collapse and move around, and can be stored in condensed stacks that occupy minimal space.

The elegant design features a smooth sweeping transition from the turned legs into the formed backrest, which also doubles as the mount for the pivot from where the back leg rotates.

The seat and back are formed from layered birch ply with a clear lacquer oak veneer and brass fixings. The fixings contained on the underside of the chair slide along the grooves within the back legs to present a graceful silhouette with clean flowing lines, which looks as good folded away for storage as it does when open and in use.

The Narin Chair received the Design Guild Mark Award and the Wood Award for Best Production Made in 2017.

West Street Chair

Robin Day

The West Street chair is a pared down design based on a simple cube shape. "There's this very vulnerable planet of ours with finite resources. Architects and designers have, I think, a fair responsibility for conserving energy and materials, and making things durable." - Robin Day

Scales Throw and Cushions

Charlotte Lancelot

When creating her Scales collection for Case, Belgian designer Charlotte Lancelot was focussed on creating timeless pieces that could resist the changing tides of taste. "My aim was to strip everything back and really distil the design," says Lancelot. "I wanted it to be as simple as possible." This particular pattern represents her unique take on classic stripes, adding curving arches that create a playful series of fish scale-like forms. The entire range is crafted in Portugal using organic cotton woven using a jacquard technique to create double-sided fabrics in an array of soothing colourways.

To create her Eclipse range for Case, Belgian designer Charlotte Lancelot turned to the geometric patterns that characterise the Brutalist aesthetic. She updated these striking forms using an array of contemporary colourways, meticulously chosen to create the perfect combinations. "A harmony of colours can make you feel good," says Lancelot. "And I always think of textiles like clothes that are worn by your home." Each piece was crafted in Portugal using organic cotton, with exquisite attention to the design's every detail.

Solid Downlight

A pure cylindrical or conical form. The rounded inner edge at the shade base is a design signature of the Solid collection. A subtle diffused glow is produced around the lower section when lit. A small shadow gap between the ceiling and shade allows for lamp cooling. As marble is a natural material the hue and veining will vary from piece to piece, making each shade body unique. All fixings are hidden.
