Coalbrook Table
Matthew Hilton

The Coalbrook table was inspired by the ironwork from Coalbrookdale foundry, the heart of the industrial revolution in the UK and with a long reputation for quality and innovation.

The base is cast iron with a black painted finish. The table is offered with either a solid edge lipped oak or walnut stained top or a solid marble top. Elegant and built to last a life time this table is one to enjoy and endure all that daily life throws at it.

Made in Poland.
