Bryn Sectional Right Camel

Comfort with structure—that’s Bryn’s sweet spot. Designed with generous seat depth, supportive foam-and-fiber cushions, and a full-length chaise (left or right), Bryn brings spacious lounging without the bulk. Textured camel-toned upholstery adds warmth and depth, while solid oak legs keep the silhouette grounded. Underneath, a solid beech and plywood frame gives it real staying power. It’s clean, cozy, and built to handle the long haul.

- Classic with a twist: Warm tones, a clean silhouette, and generous proportions give this sectional a timeless presence that works across styles.
- Tactile upholstery: 100% polyester in a camel hue adds tonal richness and a soft, textured hand that holds up to daily use.
- Solid inside and out: Built with a solid beech and plywood frame, finished with low-profile oak legs for long-term stability and subtle lift.
- Sprawl-worthy layout: Right-facing chaise, deep seat height, and high-comfort foam-and-fiber cushions make it easy to stretch out or pile in.
