Gene Charging Nightstand Dark Brown

- Finished in a rich dark brown, this reclaimed neem wood Gene charging nightstand offers a harmonious blend of form and function, merging modern technology with timeless elegance. Two doors reveal open shelving, while a soft-close drawer provides discreet storage. Crafted with mango wood, an integrated wireless charging top compatible with both Mac and Android devices adds a contemporary touch to this sophisticated piece.
- Design and Style: Traditional design meets modern convenience in a clean-lined silhouette finished in a rich, grounding dark brown.
 - Mixed Wood Materials: Reclaimed neem wood combines with mango and acacia veneers for a warm, subtly varied surface.
 - Built to Last: Constructed with a sturdy wood frame and a mango wood drawer for reliable daily use.
 - Smart Functionality: Integrated wireless charger powers your devices while keeping your surface clean and clutter-free. Compatible with Mac and Android products.
