

Agne Stool Cream

Flared legs. Nailed the landing. Agne brings a refined kind of flair. Its exposed iron frame feels sculptural and grounded, while the flared legs and finial detailing nod to vintage forms. The seat is finished in a soft, looped weave that adds texture and contrast without stealing the spotlight. It’s equal parts structure and softness — a thoughtful mix of form, function, and just the right amount of flourish.

- Flared and Finial: An iron frame with flared legs and intricate finial detailing lends a touch of vintage charm inspired by Art Nouveau styles.
- Mixed Materials: The plush, looped-weave polyester seat in a soft, boucle-like texture provides a contrast to the hard iron frame, creating an intriguing interplay of materials and textures.
