

Form Slipper Chair Sonoran Tan Leather

Moveable, modular, and dressed in top-grain leather — Form fits the way you actually live. The slipper chair slots into a modular setup or stands on its own, equally ready for lounging, hosting, or a casual workday. Full top-grain leather in sonoran tan ages with character of its own, wrapping high-density foam with feather and fiber fill for a soft-but-supportive sit. A solid wood and plywood frame and zig-zag spring support keep it steady. Contemporary, and genuinely comfortable.

- Modular Slipper Chair: Armless and adaptable, the slipper chair works on its own or slots into a larger Form configuration for flexible, moveable seating.
- Top-Grain Leather: Full top-grain leather in sonoran tan develops natural character over time, bringing a soft, durable surface that only improves with everyday use.
- Soft, Supportive Sit: High-density foam with feather and fiber fill cushions the seat, balancing a plush feel with the support that keeps long sits comfortable.
- Steady Construction: A solid wood and plywood frame with zig-zag spring support keeps the seat steady and resilient through years of everyday lounging and use.
