

Matina Slipper Chair Oatmeal

Proof that relaxed can still look refined. Matina makes the case for lived-in lounging. With a clean frame and sculptural curve, it keeps things structured, then softens it all with an oversized cushion designed to sink into. The plush chenille and purposefully wrinkled finish give it that relaxed, vintage-y feel right out of the box. Whether rounding out a setup or flying solo, it’s all about comfort with character.

- Versatile Modular Design: A piece that can be combined with other parts to offer a range of standard configurations, allowing you to create a seating arrangement that perfectly suits your space and style.
- Oversized Back Cushion: A large, wrap-around back cushion designed to provide a soft, vintage-inspired, and relaxed seating experience. Filled with faux feathers, the cushion purposefully gathers and wrinkles when you sink in, creating a warm and inviting ambiance.
- Soft Feel Fabric: Upholstered in a soft, plush chenille fabric for a soft, inviting tactile experience. The fabric's gentle texture and rich appearance enhance the overall comfort and visual appeal.
