

Mako Sideboard Large Black

Extra-long, extra room behind the doors. The Mako Large Sideboard stretches Art Deco symmetry across a bold black frame, with a shagreen-inspired finish that adds depth without shouting. A solid oak structure is wrapped in PU with that patterned texture, then set on metal legs in a brass-like, antique-gold tone. Behind the doors, two shelves adjust for tall bottles, platters, and media gear. It’s storage that earns its square footage and keeps the room looking composed.

- Long, Deco-Driven: An extended silhouette and crisp geometry give the room a strong anchor, finished in deep black for contrast.
- Patterned PU Wrap: Shagreen-textured PU adds depth and cleans easily, paired with a solid oak frame and warm-toned metal legs.
- Structured Wood Core: Solid oak framing and panel construction keep doors aligned and surfaces stable, so the profile stays sharp over time.
- Extra Storage, Adjustable: Two interior shelves adjust for tall bottles, platters, or media gear, giving you more flexibility across more space.
