

Kettel Accent Table Brass

Kettel is the side table that refuses to blend in. It brings that found-it-on-a-trip energy—warm brass tones, a hint of industrial edge, and just enough rustic finish to add depth without the fuss. The drum-style shape stays clean and sculptural, so it looks intentional from every angle. Crafted from aluminum, it’s easy to move, easy to style, and always ready to pull its weight. Small table, big statement.

- Round, Drum Profile: A sculptural round silhouette with an industrial lean that slips neatly beside a sofa or chair without stealing the whole scene.
- Rustic Brass Finish: Aluminum construction with warm gold-and-copper tonal variation for a lived-in look that plays well with mixed metals and woods.
- Solid, One-Piece Feel: The drum-style form keeps things stable and visually grounded, with a weighty presence that looks intentional from every angle.
- Easy Styling Swap: Compact enough to float wherever you need a surface—cocktail, book stack, or lamp—then move when the layout changes.
