

Treccia Side Table Oak

- Gillian Segal for Moe's The Treccia side table embodies a contemporary reinterpretation of classical aesthetics, distinguished by its intricate turned and braided details. The table features an exaggerated, elegantly detailed pedestal base, presenting a bold modern twist while ensuring practicality. Its pedestal design is visually appealing and enhances functionality, creating a welcoming, uncluttered space for gatherings and everyday use.
- Turned Legs: The turned-leg base gives the side table a sculpted profile with a vintage-leaning design note, with a grounded everyday presence.
 - Solid Oak: Solid oak construction brings natural warmth, visible wood character, and a grounded presence beside seating, with a grounded everyday presence.
 - Round Surface: The round top offers practical space for drinks, books, or small accents in living areas, with a grounded everyday presence.
 - Natural Variation: Grain, knots, and wood character vary from piece to piece, making each table naturally distinct, through its natural material character.
