

Balance Paper Mache Spheres Black Set Of 3

Three handmade spheres, one grounded little orbit. Graduated sizes give the Balance paper mache set a natural sense of grouping, styled together or placed individually across a room. The deep matte black finish feels elemental, with subtle irregularities that speak to the handmade process. Paper mache keeps the forms remarkably lightweight for their visual presence. Big stone mood, easy-to-move manners, no heavy lifting required.

- Graduated Trio: Three spheres in graduated sizes create a natural grouping, whether styled together or placed individually across a room, giving the piece a clearer visual story.
- Matte Black Finish: A deep matte black finish gives the spheres an elemental look, with subtle irregularities from the handmade process, giving the piece a clearer visual story.
- Lightweight Presence: Paper mache construction keeps the set easy to move and restyle while still delivering strong visual weight, letting the material carry the visual story.
