

Liv Slipcover Dining Chair Light Blue Set Of Two

Pleats that stay put, and a slipcover that doesn't. Light blue solution-dyed polyester holds its color in modern and transitional dining rooms, while the removable slipcover on the Liv dining chair makes everyday cleanup simple. Foam and fiber fill over a plywood frame keeps seating comfortable with no assembly required, and the pinned pleats arrive held by a single stitch that's cut away before use. Soft color that knows how to relax.

- Pleats with a Plan: A transitional silhouette and pinned pleats give the Liv chair a tailored stance that settles into dining rooms, kitchens, and eat-in spaces.
- Color That Commits: Light blue solution-dyed polyester holds its color and resists stains, so the seat stays fresh through everyday meals and quick cleanups.
- Sit, Stay a While: Foam and fiber fill gives the seat a soft, supportive feel that stays comfortable through long dinners and the conversation that follows.
- Cover Story: The slipcover lifts off for everyday cleaning, and the chair arrives assembled with a stitch at the base of the pleat that can be removed for use.
