

Trevi Clay Pot

Trevi does the ancient-urn thing beautifully. The Trevi pot brings a rounded belly and classic vessel silhouette to a small, grounded form. Its aged matte gray-green multi-tone finish gives the clay surface a weathered look, while slight unevenness makes each piece feel individual. Use it as a standalone object, vase, or planter. Small scale, long-view character, and plenty of collected energy for shelves, consoles, or corners.

- Collected Urn Shape: A rounded belly and classic urn-like silhouette give the Trevi clay pot a grounded, elemental presence, letting the material carry the visual story.
- Aged Matte Finish: The gray-green multi-tone finish gives the clay surface a weathered look, with variation that adds depth, letting the material carry the visual story.
- Flexible Styling: Use it as a standalone object, vase, or planter when a surface needs shape, texture, and height, so the design feels considered from every angle.
