

The Boleti Lamp blends modern elegance with retro charm, inspired by the mushroom-shaped lamps of the 1960s and 70s. Designed by Marke and Eva Newton and crafted in Spain, it complements any outdoor or indoor space.

Made from durable, UV-resistant PE, Boleti is eco-friendly and built to withstand the elements. Its solar-powered design ensures effortless, sustainable illumination.

Versatile and stylish, The Boleti Lamp can remain a garden feature or be carried by its handle to create a cozy ambiance anywhere. A timeless statement piece for your home and garden.
