The Griffin Chair brings a polished, tailored presence to the living room with its clean lines and elevated materials. Upholstered in light brown semi-aniline top grain leather, it offers a soft, luxurious feel with natural character. Wide track arms and a padded outside arm panel create a substantial, designer-forward silhouette, while tapered wood feet in a dark finish add a refined, grounding touch. Both stylish and versatile, the Griffin Chair is an ideal accent piece for layered seating arrangements and transitional interiors.
