Timeless dining rooms gain their character from materials that feel substantial, refined, and destined to become more personal with time. The Archives Leather Side Chair brings that enduring quality to the table with brown semi aniline top grain leather enveloping the seat, back, and outside back. Tailored welt trim lends definition to the silhouette, while the exposed wood frame and legs are finished in high clarity Classic Walnut, adding richness and depth to the warm leather upholstery.Semi aniline top grain leather gives the chair a luxurious character while allowing the natural beauty of the material to remain an important part of its appeal. The pairing of brown leather and Classic Walnut recalls the sophistication of traditional interiors, reinterpreted with a cleaner, more current sensibility that feels equally appropriate for everyday dining and special occasions.Paired with the Archives Dining Table, the Leather Side Chair creates a dining setting that feels established without feeling overly formal. Its combination of tailored leather, warm walnut, and timeless proportions brings a sense of permanence to the room, inviting guests to settle in for meals and conversations that become part of the traditions of home.
