SE69 Dining Chair

MARTIN VISSER

Designed by Martin Visser in 1959, the SE69 dining chair is a iconic example of Dutch modernism and minimalist design. Its combination of timeless design and exceptional comfort makes the SE69 not only highly functional but also a refined addition to any dining space. The steel frame and straight armrests lend the chair a quiet elegance, a feature so characteristic of Visser's work. As a true design classic, the SE69 remains as relevant today as ever: it brings sophistication to the dining table while inviting long, comfortable meals.
