BZ Bench

MARTIN VISSER

Museum-worthy and minimalistic: the BZ slatted bench was designed by Martin Visser in 1960 for the Stedelijk Museum Amsterdam. To this day, the bench continues to invite museum visitors to pause and take in the art at their own pace. Its timeless design and clear formal language make the BZ bench a true classic. As powerful in its simplicity as it is versatile in function, the 40 cm high bench works equally well as a hall seat, sideboard or placed at the foot of the bed.
