

CHULETA RINGS WALL ART

Chamcha Wood, Rectangular

The perfect example of how we use even the smallest pieces of natural wood we source, the Chuleta Rings Rectangular Wall Art is a sculptural piece created from freeform end-cuts of chamcha wood that are hollowed out and connected to form large-scale organic wall panels. Though many product designers would see these as useless castaways, we see them as building blocks that create dynamic elements for interiors. We also offer the Chuleta Rings in small and large square versions. Each of these personifies the modern organic ethos for which Phillips Collection is renowned.
