

STACKED WOOD FLOOR SCULPTURES

Bleached, Set of 3

Though the idea of stacking circlets of chamcha wood on a tall, thin spike to make a sculpture may seem obvious now, the idea to execute the Stacked-Wood Floor Sculpture Set speaks to our dedication to experimentation at Phillips Collection. The three sculptures in this set, which are made of wood that has been bleached, have such simple lines, they could lean contemporary but they also fit perfectly within the tribal chic territory. For a similar feel in decorative accessories, take a look at the Stacked-Ring Wood pieces. Each of these reflects the ethos that Phillips Collection personifies: modern organic.
